

Shepherding

The object here is to keep the attacker from turning the ball to the middle. The defender wants to shepherd the attacker to the corner or out of bounds. The attack gets points equal to the the gate they dribble through.

